CHATTANOOGA

A FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY WAR STORY BY F A MITCHEL.

One spy penetrating for even a day at plans. If the enemy knew that we are concentrating there, and how weak

we are there at present, he would or at least he should come down with a

"Indeed!" said Mrs. Fain. "I was

"Cameron," said Laura, "I wish you wouldn't talk so to mamma. She will be suspicious of every poor beggar that asks a crust. The man's name was Slack. There are plenty of Slacks among the poor whites about here. I have a sick family of that name on my hands now not a mile up the road."

"Has the fellow gone?" asked Fitz Hugh. "I think I would better see

"Gone! Of course he's gone," said

"Where did he say he was going?"
"To Chattanooga," said Mrs. Fain.

easily overtake him on horseback."

"I'll mount and follow him. I can

"Nonsense," said Laura, with a pout;

"you have kept away from me for a week, and now you are going as soon as you've come."

"But, my darling, would you have

"I would have you stay where you

Mrs. Fain, seeing that some cooing

"Tell me what I love to hear," sh

"I've told you that so often you should certainly be tired of it by this

Fitz Hugh looked inquiringly into her face as he smoothed back her bair.

He was used to these requests to repeat his assurances of affection, but there was a nervous something about

His back was toward the window.

while she was facing it. Suddenly she

"Now go if you can!" she said, af-

"Why, Laura. what does this mean?"

"You don't love me," she whined.

"Love you, pet! You know I do."

"You never come any more but you

"But, sweetheart"-a half dozen kisses for exclamation points-"I only

"If you once start out to follow some body you don't know anything about

be ordered away, and maybe I'll never Never was a lover more charmed a such evidence of woman's affection.

and never had this lover less cause to pe charmed at the evidence of his hol

upon Laura Fain. Had Captain Fitz

Hugh seen what Laura Fain saw from the moment she put her arms around him and held his back to the window-

Mark and Jakey going down the walk

"Oh, woman, thy name is perfidy!"

would have responded, "thy name is indeed perfidy, but how glorious thy

"Oh. woman," the departing soldier

"Jakey," said Mark as they passed behind trees that hid them from the house, "I don't like that officer coming to the Fain plantation just at this time

There'll surely be some mention of us, and it is possible he may want to have a look at us. You know, Jakey, we're only poor, modest people, and don't

'We ain't got our store clothes on and don't want ter make no acquaint-

Mark had noticed Laura Fain's agita tion when she caught sight of the officer at the gate, and knew there was good reason for it. He did not fear that she would betray him intention-

"The first chance we get, Jakey, we'll take to the woods. We told them

we were going to Chattanooga, and if this officer takes it into his aristocratic head to escort us with true

southern politeness a part of the way

"N' twouldn't be perlite fo' ter git in

They had gone but a trifling distance

wayfarer they met told them-through Moccasin gap. The road

Melent growth of timber to afford

At last they came to a hut occupied

"Good morning, uncle!" said Mark.
"Mornen, sah."

"Hev y' seen anything of a color-by 'bout eighteen years old go t yar this mornen?"

by an old negro.

crossed it by something between a hedge and a culvert. Mark let the way from the road up the creek and began to climb the hills, on which there was ally, but that she might be led to do high on the east shore of the peninsula.

so from her very anxiety to keep his and he did not know the proper place

ances," Jakey observed solemnly.

want to be stared at."

to the gate-be would have exclaimed

you'll be gone all day, and then you'll yo' cain't fool me."

intend being gone a little while."

"Then why do you act so?"

clasped her arms tightly around him.

fecting a playful tone.

he asked, astonished.

want to go right away."

see you any more."

perfidy!"

"Act how?"

was coming, wisely withdrew.

"And what, sweetheart?"

Laura, with a heaving bosom.

not aware of that. Suppose the young large force and drive us south." A troubled expression crossed Laura's man was a spy."

are, and"-

said softly.

She flew out of the room to find desirous of concealing his intentions Jakey. While she was gone Mark watched the approaching horseman. Chattanooga might frustrate all his He was a fine specimen of a southern man-tall and slender, with long black bair, mustache and goatee and a fine

"COME QUICK !" SHE SAID, SEIZING HIS ARM

black eye. He looked, as he came riding up the rondway, the impersonation of the southern gentleman.

Before he had dismounted Mark and Jakey were on their way to the barn. Laura Fain opened the front door just as the officer was coming up the

"Why. Cameron," she exclaimed. "how did you get away? I thought you told me you were to be officer of the guard today." "I persuaded my friend the adjutant to detail another man. "Was there a special reason?"

"Certainiy ! positively couldn't stand it another day not to see you Besides we are momentarily expecting orders to cross to cure with the .river.

"But you will be nearer to us then won't you?"

"I am afraid not. Once on this side we'll not stop nearer than Dallas or Poe's. We may join Colonel Forrest near Sparta, or wherever he may be, doubtless somewhere in the enemy's rear. He seldom troubles the Yankees in front. But you are not listening. my darling, and you are pale. You are not 111?"

"Certainly not."

"You are sorry that I came?"

You know I always want you to come. She led the way into the sitting room, from which Mark had disappeared but a minute before—a minute is a long while sometimes. Mrs. Fain entered and received the guest most graciously. Captain Cameron Fitz Hugh was a young Virginian, a graduate of the University of Virginia law school, the son of wealthy parents, whose acres and negroes were numbered by thousands. He had known the Fains before the war, Mrs. Fain baving been born and reared in the Old Dominion. During a visit of Laura to his people. shortly before the breaking out of hostilities, had fallen in love with her, had proposed and was accepted. Both families being agreeable, the two were engaged to be married. "This is an unexpected pleasure, captain," said Mrs. Fain.

"I did not suppose I could get away today." "Everything is unexpected in these times. We never know who is coming to us. Last night I slept uneasily for fear that we harbored a guerrilla in the house.' "How is that?" asked Captain Fitz Hugh.

"Where are the strangers, Laura?" "I think they are gone, mamma."

"A countryman and his little brother," said Mrs. Fain to the captain. Laura thought him quite a gentleman for one so poorly dressed."

"But I changed my mind, mamma," said Laura quickly.

"And what was the occasion of so sudden a bouleversement?" asked the captain.

he'll expect to find us on the Chatta-"Why-why, when we were sitting veranda after you went in, his way."

"Sitting on the veranda with a countryman!" exclaimed the lover. "Well, yes; mamma said to invite But I was going to say"-Laura's inventive powers had gained time to act by the interruption—"I found that he was only an ignorant farmer after all, for I asked him how far the moon was, and he said he reckneed it was a hundred million $400.00 Kimball Piano Given Away!

Grand Offer to Families Not Owning Pianos.

YOU HAVE JUST AS GOOD AN OPPORTUNITY OF WINNING THE PIANO next month, --- Wm Wisdom of AS ANYONE-BETTER GET BUSY RIGHT NOW!

DIRECTIONS-Gutline on this or a separate sheet of paper twenty objects in the above picture whose names begin with the letters "CA;" for example, CA GE. Also write out your list of names. The person not owning an upright piano sending in the neatest correct answer will receive the first prize. Everyone not owning a piano that sends in an answer shall receive a prize. Winners will be notified by mail. Only one prize awarded in a family- Decisions of judges final. Professional artists'. draughtsmen's or designers' answers will not be accepted. Write your name and address plainly on your answer and mail or bring same to us.

Contest Closes 12 m. Monday, September 25th, 1911 R. M. SUTHERLIN,

MARSHALL BUILDING NORTH SIDE SQUARE,

alm. He run away last night. He'.

"I ain't saw him, sah, 'n I tell yo'

"Thet's the way with you niggers,

what, marst'r, of I had saw him I

since the Yankees turned your heads.

But it won't last long. Our boys'll

your darkles'll hev to stop runnen

"Now don' yo' believe dat so sarten."

"Do you really believe the Yanks can

"De Lo'd hes sent 'em to tote his col-

Mark was satisfied with this prelimi-

"Uncle, I'm no secesh. I'm a Union man. I want to stay with you today and travel tonight. Keep me all day, and I'll go away as soon as it is dark."

"Fo' de Lo'd. I knowed yo' wa'n't

"Yo' ain't got de south'n man's way

o' talken. Yo' did hit well enough, but no good. Dey always call me notten of the Confederacy in that respect,

sald Mark. "I guess we'll go inside."

"Yes, go in dar. Keep dark."

"You're as well off as the president

Mark and Jakey waited for the day to pass, and as they had no means of amusing themselves it passed very slowly. Jakey played about the creek for awhile, but both were glad when

Before setting out on his expedition

Mark had carefully studied a map of the region, preferring to fix it in his mind than to carry it about his person.

Upon leaving Jefferson Randolph's hut

he made direct for the Tennessee river.

Once there, he knew from his remem brance of the map that he was not far from Chattanooga, and that between him and that place was Moccasin point, formed by a bend, or rather loop, in the river, the point putting out southward for more than two miles, with a distance of nearly a mile across its neck. But he knew the ground was to strike inland and cut off the distance around the river's margin. There was no one near to inform him, so he

To be continued

A Fierce Night Alarm

is the hoarse, startling cough of a

of Manchester, O., R. R. No. 2, for proved what a certain remedy Dr.

kept on by the river

the darkness came and they could get git a hundred of I ketch him."

ored people out o' bondage."

no south'n man all de time."

"Well, will you keep us?"

"Reckon I will."

his fiancee this morning that puzzled drive 'em so fur no'th pretty soon that away."

whip us?"

the old man.

"How?"

wouldn't inform yo' ob de fac."

MARSHALL, MO.

Mrs. Victoria Audsley will hold at her farm, six miles northeast of shall, the consideration being $65 Miami and twelve miles north of per acre. The trade was negotiat- Oct. 9th.---Still-born to Mr. Slater,---While W. W. Brame ed by Geo. W. Baker,-Rustler. and Frank Fisher were at work nary examination that he could trust with others at the Audsley property in this city Tuesday, a difficulty arose between the two men which resulted in personal combat. len's Arnica Salve does? It as-Brame received a number of slash tounding cures in the past forty es with a knife. It is said there years made them. Its the best were no eye witnesses of the affair Salve in the world for sores, ulcers and no definite particulars are ob- eczema, burns, boils, scalds, cuts, tainable .-- Miss Tina Jenkins corns, sore eyes, sprains, swellings, was thrown from her horse Tues- bruises, cold sores. Has no equal day morning while on her way to for piles. 25c at P. H. Franklin's. school. She suffered no injury but was badly frightened. The horse 1911, a son.-News.

How's This

We offer One Hundred Dollars Catarrh Cure.

and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by his firm.

Walding, Kinnan & Marvin, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by all druggists. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

SLATER

G. A. Green, representing child, suddenly attacked by croup. Monarch Construction Company, when they came to a creek flowing-as Often it aroused Lewis Chamblin, who is to rebuild the round house and erect machine shops their four children were greatly for the C. & A. at this place, desevere attacks," he wrote "we were ing for 40 men at once, and reafraid they would die, but since we quests us to make this announcement. Persons desiring boarders -Sweet Springs Herald. King's New Discovery is, we have should apply to Mr. Green. no fear. We rely on it for croup C. H. Tucker this week purchased and for coughs, colds or any throat of Jaco. Schaurer, of Kansas City, or lung trouble." So do thousands his business house on Main Street of Jaco. Schaurer, of Kansas City, Mrs. Winslew's Seething of others. So may you. Asthma, for the consideration of $5,500. Hay Fever, LaGrippe, Whooping Cough, Hemorrhages fly before it. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Sold by P. H. Franklin.

this winter for his moving picture shows, etc. --- Dr. T. B. Ross at-M. S. M. at Moberly last week where he met 20 of his former comrades and report a very en- Mr. Brownlee doing nicely .joyable meeting. The next reunion will be held at Boonville .-- J. H. Stipes said his 80 acre farm located about 5 miles southwest of Slapublic sale Tuesday, October 10, ter, to P. D. Brown of near Mar-

Has Millions of Friends

How would you like to number your friends by millions as Buck-

GILLIAM "Randolph's my name, sah. Jeff'son took fright at a bicycle he met in The revival meeting at Good Randolph. My marst'r said he gib me, the road near the Malle place. The Hope closed last Sunday night. a mighty big name, but hit didn't do rider said he was unable to stop There were many conversions and before he had scared the horse, upon the whole the meeting was The horse ran back as far as the a great success .-- Misses Helen Bluff schoolhouse, where it was and Maud Norvell left Wednesday caught .-- Born to Mr. and Mrs. morning for Columbia. Mo., to at-Russell Price at their home south- tend the State University .--- Mrs. west of Miami Monday, September Richard Hill, of McClave, Colorado. 11, 1911, a daughter .-- Born to is visiting her many friends in her Mr. and Mrs. Frank Yuille of north old home around the Good Hope of Miami Thursday, September 7, neighborhood and vicinity,-Globe, it is to be really, truly lonesome,

Week End and Sunday Excursion

Reward for any case of Catarrh | C. & A. R. R. has on sale for all that cannot be cured by Hall's trains Saturday and Sunday (except the Hummer) a $2.63 round by one in sight. Depot environed F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. trip rate good till 8 a. m. Mon-We the undersigned, have known day (all trains except the hummer) F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, to Kansas City. Also $1.50 rate going and returning on Slater ac commodation same date. Leave a lamp, but there was no oil in it. Kansas City 6.30 p. m. O. E. Hawthorne,

Passenger agent.

SWEET SPRINGS

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ban-

nett, on Wednesday-a son .-Miss Blanche Riplett of Marshall has been the guest of Misses Bessie and Lettie Wood the, past two times when time doesn't fly. It weeks .- Jet Rose of the firm of crawls. This was one of the times. Rose Bros., of Marshall, was here Lonesome, well I reckon!" this week and got the contract for the brick work on the new hotel to be built on Miller street by C. K. Smith .-- Joe Treece of near Cretcher, purchased of C. K. Smith the residence property on Daisy formerly owned by H. H. Smith. Mr. Treece will get possessubject to croup. "Sometimes in sires to obtain board and lodg- sion in 39 days and will remodel the house which he will make his home. B. F. Henley made the sale.

BLACKWATER

The brick work is completed and the bricklayers returned to Boonville Monday. It looks now like the new school house will be ready to begin school about the first of Arrow Rock drove over Monday to meet his mother Mrs. C. C. Wisdom of Marshall, and sister. Mrs. J. W. Clayton and children, of Parsons, Kansas, who will visit him and family for a while at their country home near Arrow Rock .-

Blockaded

Every Household in Marshall Should Know how to Resist It.

The back aches because the kideys are blockaded.

Help the kidneys with their work The back will ache no more. Lots of proof that Doan's Kid-

It's the best proof for it comes from this vicinity.

nev Pills do this .

George W. Jacques, Maple St., Slater, Mo., says: "I had attacks of lameness and sharp pains across my back brought on, I believe by the jarring of the locomotive. I was certain that my kidneys were disordered, as the secretions passed with a scalding sensation. Being advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box and began their use. They removed my trouble and there has been no return at tack. I consider myself permanent ly cured."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 ents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo. New York sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name-Doan's -and take no other.

NELSON

Andy Brownlee had his leg cut just above the heel with a corn cutter yesterday morning. He tended the reunion of the Ninth lost his balance and fell in front of the knife. Dr. Smith was called to dress the wound and reported Master Sam Hanley met with a painful accident at school Wednesday morning by running a barb in his foot .--- Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Cowan are contemplating on leaving for the Pacific Coast about and Mrs. Will Hinton, a boy Suniay.-Record.

Attacks School Principal

A severe attack on school prinipal. Chas. B. Allen, of Sylvania, Ga., is thus told by him. "For more than three years," he writes, I suffered indescribable torture from rhoumatism, liver and stomach trouble and diseased kidneys. All remedies falled till I used Electric Bitters, but four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me completely." Such results are common, Thousands bless them for curing stomach trouble, female com plaints, kidney disorders, biliousness, and for new health and vigor. Try them. Only 50c at P. H. Frank Ex-Governor E. W. Hoch, in his last travel letter to the Marion Record, says: "Maybe you know what but I doubt it. I do. Had a two hours' wait at Gault, Mo., tonight. which was the real thing. Got there about dark. The depot is more than a mile, I think, in the country. Not a house near. Hardby hills, woods and patches of corn. No one at the depot but me Agent not there. No light. Fumbled around in the dark and found The dogs barked in the distance. The owls hooted in the trees. The frogs croaked. Empty freight cars stood sentry on the sidings and suggested a rendezvous for tramps. Examined my means of defense in case worst came to worst, and found that I had a little pocket knife and a tooth pick. There are

Kills a Murcerer

A merciless murderer is Appendicitis with many victims, but Dr. Kings New Life Pills kill it by pre vention. They gently stimulate, stomach, liver and bowels, prevent ing that elogging that invites appendicitis, curing Constipation, Headache, Biliousness, Chills, 25c at P. H. Franklin.

There will be a shoe box party at the Stonewall school house, 7 miles southwest of Marshall on Friday night, Sept. 22. Everybody invited. Teacher Miss Delta Neville. In case of bad weather Priday night it will be held Saturday